

The Dorset Down Sheep Breeders' Association

Data Privacy Notice

The Dorset Down Sheep Breeders' Association (DDSBA) collects and processes personal information about its members. This information is gathered to enable the Association to provide its members with membership and registration services.

How we obtain, control and process data

The Association obtains controls and processes members' data by consent. Members are asked annually to give consent for their data to be used for all or any of the following purposes:

- a) For membership services
- b) For sheep registration services
- c) For distribution to the membership in printed form as part of the annual flock book
- d) For giving to members of the public or organisations making enquiries about the purchase of sheep or sheep products

How we use this information

- The Association only processes information necessary to establish or maintain membership or support or to facilitate the operation of the flock book and sheep registrations
- The Association only processes information necessary to provide or administer activities for purposes a) and d) above
- The Association only shares the information with people and organisations necessary to carry out the Association's activities, and only when the data subject (information owner) has given consent

The data we control and process
